

Swissalpine Davos

Date de début : 2021-07-23 Date de fin : 2021-07-25

Picturesque landscapes, breathtaking panoramas amidst the Grisons mountains and varied, adventurous trails: The Swissalpine in Davos is captivating due to its unique, high-alpine scenery. Competitions over varying distances and various categories appeal to mountain runners and trail runners as well as casual runners. The spectrum in the Davos mountain landscape ranges from K68, the ultimate challenge, to the relaxed K10. The well-established and extremely popular K43 remains unchanged. The varied K23 from Klosters to Davos rounds off the wide-ranging offer. And the kids can already compete against each other on Friday in competitions over 0.5 to 1.4 kilometres.

The participants will be vigorously cheered on by spectators and music groups en route.

Programme:

Friday, 23.07.2021: Kids-Race

Saturday, 24.07.2021: K68 & K23

Sunday, 25.07.2021: K43 & K10

Localisation : Talstrasse 41 - 7270 Davos

Adresse Web : www.swissalpine.ch

Préstations :

Détail des épreuves :

K68

The trail leads through Dischma Valley, over the Scaletta and Sertig Pass, as well as the panoramic trail in between into Sertig Valley, and then over the Fanezfurgga to Monstein, and eventually back to the point of departure in Davos over Jatzmeder and Sfer Valley. A gem of a high-alpine route over four passes and eight valleys!

Distance : 68km

Lieu de départ : Davos

Lieu d'arrivée : Davos

Dénivelé + : 2606m

Dénivelé - : 2606m

Tarif : 130€

K43

The extremely popular mountain marathon is a classic. The trail leads through the charming valleys of Dischma and Sertig and over the former mule track over the Scaletta Pass and finally the Sertig Pass, where you descend past the beautiful Sertig Dörfli back to Davos.

Distance : 43km

Lieu de départ : Davos

Lieu d'arrivée : Davos

Dénivelé + : 1424m

Dénivelé - : 1424m

Tarif :95€

K23

The insider tip in the Swissalpine programme. It follows the earlier traces of the Walsers. The trail leads through a wildly romantic gorge over the Wolfgang Pass and finally past the breathtaking Lake Davos. A run for connoisseurs.

Distance : 23km

Lieu de départ : Klosters

Lieu d'arrivée : Davos

Dénivelé + : 629m

Dénivelé - : 282m

Tarif :50€

K10

This route is especially suitable for connoisseurs and supporters. The joint finish alongside world-class runners gives everyone a very unique feeling of happiness.

Distance : 9km

Lieu de départ : Davos

Lieu d'arrivée : Davos

Dénivelé + : 163m

Dénivelé - : 163m

Tarif :35€
